Randy Boeve's cancer has progressed into leukemia. He will remain in the hospital for 3-4 more weeks undergoing intense treatment, still with the hopes of receiving a bone marrow transplant. We continue to pray for his care team as they seek the best source of treatment for him. Please keep Randy & Sue in your prayers as he continues to face this ongoing battle.

Evie Bonnes continues to have her health decline as she is now blind, wheelchair bound, and her memory is failing. Please continue to remember her, and her son Dwight, in your prayers.

Gret Heuvelman continues to weaken. We are grateful for the Hospice care she is receiving and pray for her and John during this time.

Cheryl Kroll is currently hospitalized as she continues to deal with infection and pressure sores. Please pray for her to be encouraged and for the medical staff to receive wisdom to properly take care of her.

Elaine Venema received a good biopsy report indicating her polyp is benign. We pray for her as she awaits further information about potential treatment options.

Alaska Mission Team left for Alaska yesterday. We pray for the hearts and minds of those going (20 youth and 19 adults) and of those they will interact with during their time spent serving and sharing the Gospel. May God be glorified! The team will be updating a blog each day so that parents and the congregation can keep up with what they are doing during their trip. If you would like to follow along, please use this link: <https://northstreetalaska2024.blogspot.com/>

Continue to pray for those facing an on-going recovery/chronic illness: John Apotheker
