Randy Boeve hopes to return home this weekend. We continue to pray for his care team as they resume working towards his bone marrow transplant in the near future.

The Dumea Family (Ovi & Jessica and Estera) are our partners with Wycliffe Bible Translators in Romania. They have announced that they will end service on August 31, 2024, so Jessica can care for their daughter, Estera, full-time. Please pray for this family that the Lord will give them peace in this decision and that Estera can receive the care she needs. See their newsletter (in the July Mission Updates) for more information.

Cheryl Kroll has returned home (MediLodge) and we continue to pray for her to regain strength after the lengthy hospital stay.

Sarah Miedema has been diagnosed with breast cancer and meets with doctors this coming week to formulate a treatment plan. We pray for Mitch & Sarah and Trevor to be surrounded with the peace that passes all understanding during this uncertain time.

Linda VanDyke was scheduled to have her 4th/last chemo this past week, but was unable to receive that treatment because her white blood count was too low. She is receiving a daily shot to boost it back up in the hopes that she will be able to have a treatment this coming week. We pray that she will be able to receive her treatment this coming Tuesday, that the treatments are effective in riding her body of cancer, and that she can start the next phase of treating her breast cancer as scheduled.

Shirley VanVoorst underwent a brain biopsy on Wednesday, July 10, to check an area of concern. We pray for her and her family as they continue to await results from this biopsy.

Laura Visser is attending a GEMS conference this weekend. We pray for traveling mercies and a fruitful time of learning as preparations are underway for the upcoming education season.

Continue to pray for those battling cancer:

Terry Boerman	Randy Boeve
Sarah Miedema	Kristin Sterk
Linda VanDyke	Shirley VanVoorst
